AFFIDAVIT OF ROBERT I. HARWOOD
IN SUPPORT OF THE ENTRY OF AN ORDER DIRECTING DISTRIBUTION OF THE NET SETTLEMENT FUND

STATE OF NEW YORK)
) ss.:
COUNTY OF NEW YORK)

ROBERT I. HARWOOD, being duly sworn, deposes and says:

1. I am a member of the firm of Wechsler Harwood LLP. My firm is Co-Lead Counsel for plaintiffs and the Class in the securities class action on behalf of certain public shareholders of Olsten Corporation ("Olsten").

2. By Order and Final Judgment dated August 31, 2001, the Court approved a settlement of this action and retained jurisdiction over, among other things, the distribution of the settlement proceeds. In February 2003, plaintiffs sought approval of the distribution of the settlement funds. After extensive briefing and over the objection of claimant Robert Riedinger, the Court granted plaintiffs' application on April 16, 2004.

3. Mr. Riedinger appealed such Order to the Court of Appeals for the Second Circuit. On September 12, 2005, the Second Circuit reversed and remanded the case for further proceedings.

4. Based on the Second Circuit's Opinion, plaintiffs requested that the Claims Administrator recalculate the proposed plan of allocation to include Mr. Riedinger so that he would receive his pro rata share of the settlement fund. Mr. Riedinger's counsel has had an opportunity to review the revised plan of allocation and has consented to the entry of the proposed order directing distribution of the net settlement fund. With the exception of allowing Mr. Riedinger's claim, the previously approved submissions are unchanged.

5. Accordingly, I submit this affidavit in support of plaintiffs' application for entry of an order directing that the Settlement Fund be distributed to the Class in accordance with the final determinations made by the Claims Administrator, Berdon Administration LLC ("Berdon").

6. In accordance with the Stipulation of Settlement, the parties created a cash fund of approximately $24.1 million plus interest ("Settlement Fund") to be distributed in the following manner: (1) the amount awarded by the Court for attorneys' fees and reimbursement of expenses would be paid to plaintiffs' counsel; (2) the costs and expenses incurred in the administration of the Settlement Fund would be paid to the Claims Administrator; and (3) the remainder of the Settlement Fund (the "Net Settlement Fund"), would be distributed to all members of the Class who submitted valid claims for payment, on a pro rata basis.

7. As detailed in the affidavit of Michael Rosenbaum (the "Rosenbaum Affidavit") annexed hereto as Exhibit 1, the Claims Administrator has performed, inter alia, the following services: (i) processing of the Proofs of Claim submitted by Class Members; (ii) determining the adequacy of the Proofs of Claims and any documentation submitted therewith; (iii) notifying claimants regarding any inadequacies in their Proofs of Claim; (iv) making final determinations regarding the approval or rejection of deficient claims; and (v) preparing and filing tax returns on behalf of the Settlement Fund.

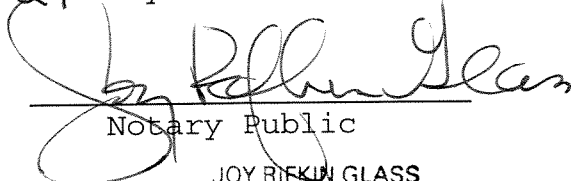

8. The process of administering the Proofs of Claims is complete and upon the direction of the Court, Berdon is prepared to distribute the Net Settlement Fund to all class members who have submitted valid claims.

9. By Order dated April 16, 2004, the Court ordered that Berdon be paid $478,410.94 comprised of $53,910.94 in out-of-pocket expenses and $424,500 in fees. Berdon has agreed not to seek any additional fees and expenses to expedite the distribution to the claimants. Plaintiffs' counsel is also not seeking any additional fees or expenses incurred in connection with the administration of the Settlement Fund, including defense of the appeal.

Exhibit 1

3. As detailed in my January 30, 2003 affidavit submitted in connection with the initial application to distribute the Settlement Fund, Berdon was retained by Plaintiffs' Counsel, with the approval of the Court, to arrange for the printing and mailing of the Notice of Pendency of Class Action, Settlement and Hearing Thereon, and the Proof of Claim (collectively, the "Notice") to all persons and entities who purchased the common stock of Olsten during the period from February 5, 1996 through and including July 22, 1997 (the "Class," the "Class Period"). This office was also responsible for arranging the publication of the Summary Notice For Publication (the "Summary Notice") in the national edition of The Wall Street Journal.

4. In performing these tasks, Berdon dealt directly with a financial printer with regard to the Notice, and with an advertising agency in connection with the Summary Notice. To effect the mailing of the Notice, Berdon created mailing labels from the names and addresses of: (a) Olsten shareholders obtained and provided to this office by Plaintiffs' Counsel; (b) brokers, banks and other nominees contained in the Depository Trust Company's Participant Proxy Contact List, as well as the compliance personnel of said brokers, banks and other nominees, both identified from databases created and maintained by Berdon; and (c) financial institutions identified by Vickers Directory of Institutional Investors as having held positions in Olsten during the Class Period. We made formatting suggestions to, and compiled comments from, counsel on the galley proofs and caused the necessary revisions to be made.

5. Subsequent to the initial mailing of 3,277 copies of the Notice on May 14, 2001, described in my affidavit sworn to on August 20, 2001 and previously filed with the Court, and up to and including this date, my office mailed an additional 58,343 copies of the Notice in response to telephone, written and website requests for additional copies thereof from individuals and nominees, as well as directly to beneficial owners, using the mailing labels therefor that were provided by certain nominees.

6. Berdon reviewed and analyzed the 16,436 Proof of Claim forms ("Proof(s) of Claim" or "claim form(s)") received and responded to Class members' inquiries regarding the action, the settlement and the procedures for filling out the claim forms. Throughout the administration process, we were in close contact with Plaintiffs' Counsel and were able to address concerns regarding claims that Berdon had deemed either questionable or problematic. Large individual claims and institutional claims filed by banks and trading companies, both types with multiple, complex transactions, were reviewed separately and in great detail. Our final report (the “Summary of the Claims Administration Process”), which is described in detail below, is annexed as Schedule 1.

7. In reviewing the claims that were submitted, Berdon determined that some were deficient or incomplete. Among the deficiencies found were: (a) claim forms were not filled out completely; (b) claim forms were not signed by the proper party, or at all; (c) individuals signing claim forms on behalf of others did not submit proof of authority to file on behalf of those claimant; or (d) claimants had failed to submit adequate documentation of the purchases or sales of Olsten common stock during the Class Period, holdings at the commencement or end of the Class Period, or otherwise failed to give adequate information as to Class Period purchases, sales and/or holdings. Berdon mailed letters to each of these claimants (Exhibit A), advising them of the deficiency in their claim and requesting that they cure it within 20 days. In many cases, the deficiencies were cured. To those claimants whose deficiencies were not cured, Berdon mailed final notices (Exhibit B) and made follow-up telephone calls if further clarification was required with respect to supporting documentation. The one claimant who objected to our determination sought relief from the Court of Appeals for the Second Circuit and, based on its decision, has now been included with those claims deemed to be properly documented. No other claimants have objected to or contested our determination of their deficiency.

8. Berdon’s “Summary of the Claims Administration Process” (Schedule 1) sets forth the final status of claims received by this office, as follows:

a. Properly Documented Claims: Berdon has identified 13,697 properly documented claims with Recognized Claims amounting to $145,605,976.38 (Exhibit C), which were calculated in the following manner:

For shares of Olsten common stock that were purchased during the period from February 5, 1996 through and including November 20, 1996 and: (1) sold on or before November 20, 1996: no damages; (2) sold between November 21, 1996 and May 7, 1997, the number of shares purchased and sold multiplied by the lesser of: (a) $5.375 (here and thereafter, or values are post-split); or (b) the actual purchase price(s) less the actual sales price(s); (3) sold between May 8, 1997 and July 22, 1997, the number of shares purchased and sold multiplied by the lesser of: (a) $6.375; or (b) the actual purchase price(s) less the greater of: (i) the actual sales price(s); or (ii) $18.00; (4) held through July 22, 1997, the number of shares purchased multiplied by $10.00.

For shares of Olsten common stock that were purchased during the period from November 21, 1996 through and including May 7, 1997 and: (1) sold on or before May 7, 1997: no damages; (2) sold between May 8, 1997 and July 22, 1997, the number of shares purchased and sold multiplied by the lesser of: (a) $1.00; or (b) the actual purchase price(s) less the greater of: (i) the actual sales price(s); or (ii) $18.00 (if the purchase price was less than $18.00 per share, there are no damages); (3) held through July 22, 1997, the number of shares purchased multiplied by the lesser of: (a) $4.625; or (b) the actual purchase price(s) less $18.00 (if the purchase price was less than $18.00 per share, there are no damages).

For shares of Olsten common stock that were purchased during the period from May 8, 1997 through and including July 22, 1997 and: (1) sold on or before July 16, 1997: no damages; (2) sold between July 17, 1997 and July 22, 1997, the number of shares purchased and sold multiplied by the actual purchase price(s) less the greater of: (a) the actual sales price(s); or (b) $18.00 (if the purchase price was less than $18.00 per share, there are no damages); (3) held after July 22, 1997, the number of shares purchased multiplied by the lesser of: (a) $1.00; or (b) the actual purchase price(s) less the greater of (i) the actual sales price(s); or (ii) $18.00 (if the purchase price was less than $18.00 per share, there are no damages). The time frame for sales extended through March 15, 2000, Record Date of the merger into Adecco S.A.

Shares originally sold short, prior to or during the Class Period, carried no compensable losses. Transactions resulting in gain were not included in the computation of Recognized Claim.

Included in the properly documented claims are 13,294 claims that were filed timely and 403 claims that were received after the filing deadline. Late claims have been included, since it appears that the claimants did not receive a Proof of Claim from their brokers in a timely manner. We therefore recommend that all valid and complete claims be approved as calculated.

b. Claims Not Documented: Berdon has identified 484 inadequately documented or completely undocumented claims, with estimated Recognized Claims amounting to $922,997.42 that cannot be verified, and we recommend that these claims be rejected (Exhibit D). As stated above, we have advised these claimants of our determination, and no one has objected to or contested this determination.

c. Ineligible Claims: Berdon has identified 2,255 claims, which we recommend be completely rejected (Exhibit E). Included in this category are (i) Defendants; (ii) claims with no purchases of Olsten common stock made during the Class Period; and (iii) duplicate claims. All of these claimants were notified (Exhibit F).

9. Pursuant to the Notice, each Authorized Claimant will receive a proportionate share of the Net Class Settlement Fund based upon the ratio of that Authorized Claimant's Recognized Claim to the aggregate of all Authorized Claimants' Recognized Claims.

10. By order dated April 16, 2004, the Court approved a fee of $424,500.00. The fee covered a variety of services, including, but not limited to: (a) creating databases and computer programming services; (b) arranging for the printing of the Notice and the publication of the Summary Notice; (c) creating mailing labels and generating lists of potential claimants for the initial mailing; (d) fulfilling all subsequent requests from nominees and Olsten beneficial owners for copies of the Notice; (e) reviewing and analyzing claims; (f) conducting follow-up fax and phone solicitations of nominees to reach their beneficial holders of Olsten common stock; (g) providing telephone assistance to claimants and maintaining the Olsten website; (h) calculating the Recognized Claim for ultimate distribution of the Net Settlement Fund; (i) preparing and mailing Settlement checks to claimants; and (j) preparing income tax returns. See Exhibit G.

11. In addition, the Court also approved an outstanding balance of $53,910.94 in out-of-pocket expenses that it had incurred and expected to incur in connection with the final distribution of the Class Settlement proceeds, also set forth in Exhibit G .

12. Berdon hereby waives any and all fees and expenses that may have been incurred subsequent to January 30, 2003.
